10th Euro-Asian Symposium on Economic Theory June 29-30, 2022

CALL FOR PAPERS

Dear Colleagues!

We invite you to participate in the 10th Euro-Asian Symposium on Economic Theory (EASET-2022). This year's topic is "Viability of Economic Theories: Through Order and Chaos".

The purpose of the Symposium is to exchange research experience and search for effective solutions to current problems of the development of modern economic theory in conditions of instability and uncertainty. At the event, we plan to discuss the conceptual foundations of the study of order and chaos; the evolution of concepts of economic theory; applied aspects of economic theories in their application and development in modern conditions; as well as to test the resilience of economic theories in the conditions of the "coronacrisis".

MAIN SCOPE OF THE SYMPOSIUM:

- Economic shocks in the history of economic thought
- Sustainable development: between capitalism and socialism
- The black swan theory and economic cycles
- Mainstream and political economy: Is their synthesis possible?
- Entropy accumulation in socio-economic systems
- Modern economic concepts of identity
- Heterodox economic theories in the modern world
- Modern monetary theory and its viability in the current context
- Economic policy in a pandemic: Neoclassical economics vs. Keynesian economics vs. New theories
- New Normal: Development costs
- Theory of organizations and development cycles under uncertainty
- Erosion of property rights: Chaos or a new order
- Construction of new socio-economic mechanisms
- Consumer behaviour models during crises
- Verification of economic theories with the "corona crisis"
